

THE GRIFFIN INN WINES

We pride ourselves on our choice of wines and our wine list has been widely acclaimed most recently by the Good Food Guide 2013. We constantly seek out interesting wines which we enjoy but, more important, we think that you will enjoy too. Wherever possible we try and avoid the obvious and conventional and, because of that, we have a very good representation of wines from Italy, a country whose food and wine we love greatly. The enormous diversity of climate, soil, and grape variety in Italy gives endless scope for interesting and delightful choices. To quote from Hugh Johnson 2013, "to grasp the profusion of what Italy has to offer the lover of good wine you should go to Vinitaly, the annual sprint wine fair at Verona. You could taste for days, meet thousands of dedicated growers with self-respect of real craftsmen, and show your palate a range of flavours you had no idea that existed."

We are starting to see some fantastic wines coming out of Spain which particularly complement our love of wood oven and open fire cooking, see our wines of the week.

We have relatively few half-bottles because we offer nearly 20 wines by the glass and these are equivalent to a quarter bottle and this gives a wide choice for people to choose from. Also, we are very pleased to "cork up" an unfinished bottle of wine so that it may be finished at home.

WELCOME TO OUR WINTER 2015 WINE LIST

THE GRIFFIN WINE CLUB "Usque ad Mortem Bibendum" We launched the "Innovative, Didactic and Sybaritic" Griffin Wine Club in October 2012 with the intention of bringing a whole new world of oenological delights to our members in an informal and open forum (i.e Bacchanalian!) environment, with as much audience participation as possible. We meet every six weeks or so, and in the company of the winemaker and our resident experts, including yours truly, your palate is guided through an extensive range of boutique wines, and those that you fall head over heels in love with, you may subsequently buy at wholesale prices. We provide serious tapas as blotting paper; despite the fact we aim to taste wine we have yet to see the spittoons being troubled at a GWC event. There is an annual membership charge of £30 (which can be for a couple!) For the latest oenological news and future Wine Club events please visit www.thegriffininn.co.uk.

After what has truly been The Endless Summer of Love let us start in our usual didactic manner by opening up our Latin primer:

"Ecce Cruentum Hiberna!"

Behold the bloody Winter

But worry not, Sybarites; we have a full schedule of wine led entertainments that will ensure Winter hath but a short lease.

The Griffin Wine Club has been very busy keeping up its Bacchanalian reputation over the past couple of months, what with our Portuguese tasting in September, the splendid Jacquart Champagne dinner and the quite unparalleled GWC annual trip to Sicily, of which more later.

USQUE AD MORTEM BIBENDUM, YEALANDS, N.Z. Wednesday 28th January

The 19th stopover on the Griffin Wine Club's world tour continues on the above date when we visit (metaphorically speaking) New Zealand for the first time. We are honoured to welcome Helen Macfarlane, the winemaker at Yealands Winery who own fabulous estates in Marlborough and Otago and she will be showing their full portfolio of wines, which will be accompanied by some serious seasonal tapas with an Antipodean flavour.

I would love to see as many of you members and guests as possible to get the "Innovative, Didactic and Sybaritic" G.W.C. off to a flying start for the New Year, please book early. £40 per head.

GWC SICILY TOUR

The Griffin Inn returned at the end of October from Sicily, where we were guests of the iconic, impressive and quite unique Planeta family. Time and space does not allow for a full report here of that "trip" (for t'was indeed that, in all senses!), however we are putting together a pictorial travelogue which will follow shortly. In the meantime we are giving the whole Planeta wine portfolio a page to itself on our wine list at greatly reduced margins to encourage those of you unfamiliar with their wines to get stuck in - I promise you will not be disappointed!! And, of course, they are available to you glorious members, as wholesale.

While we strive to keep vintages up to date, vintages may be subject to change without notice.

DESSERT WINES

A glass of dessert wine, of which we have considerably increased our selection, is a delicious accompaniment to all puddings, cheeses etc. and also a delightful alternative to port or cognac as a "digestif." For the more "avant garde" among our customers, a glass of well-chilled Muscat is an excellent aperitif, or accompaniment to terrines and, in particular, foie gras.

MUSCAT DE SAINT JEAN DE MINERVOIS Domaine de Barroubio 2011 15% ABV Intense, complex nose of grapes, pear, rose petals and citrus. Sweet, rich and powerful with a balancing zesty acidity on the long finish.	37.cl Bottle 24.00	125ml Glass 7.00
